

In Case You Missed It...

Ho'olaule'a

On Wednesday, May 24, 700 guests enjoyed an onolicious (delicious) Hawaiian lunch at Gwinn Commons Dining Hall's 5th annual Ho'olaule'a, "Hawaiian celebration"! Guests were greeted with flower leis, live music, and hula dances performed by Auntie Manu & band. The dining hall embodied the aloha spirit with Hawaiian shirts, fun decorations and beautiful floral arrangements made by Loida. Chef Dave created a menu that incorporated both authentic Hawaiian cuisine and Hawaii local favorites. On the menu was: Kalua Pork, Chicken Long Rice, Loco Moco, Spam Musubi, Fried Poke, Mauka Casserole, Teriyaki Chicken Pizza, Lomi-lomi Salmon, Potato Mac Salad, Haupia, Guava Chiffon Cake, and Butter Mochi! The Ho'olaule'a celebrated Hawaiian cuisine and the end of a great academic year at Seattle Pacific University!
